The famous town of Cesky Krumlov

Cesky Krumlov, 28.08.2026 [ENA]

From the castle tower, Ceský Krumlov unfolds in a breathtaking panorama. The Vltava River winds through the historic town, framed by colorful rooftops, medieval streets, and elegant Baroque buildings, creating a timeless view of this enchanting city.

Ceský Krumlov is a beautifully preserved historic town in the South Bohemian region of the Czech Republic. Famous for its UNESCO-listed old town, it is dominated by a magnificent castle overlooking the winding Vltava River. Its narrow medieval streets, colorful Renaissance and Baroque houses, charming squares, and picturesque riverside views create a unique atmosphere. The town flourished from the Middle Ages under the powerful Rosenberg family and later the Eggenberg and Schwarzenberg dynasties. Today, Ceský Krumlov is celebrated for its architecture, culture, museums, gardens, and timeless charm.

Nestled in South Bohemia along the winding Vltava River, Ceský Krumlov is a captivating town where history and architecture blend harmoniously. Its historic center offers a remarkable collection of Gothic, Renaissance, and Baroque buildings, picturesque courtyards, and peaceful riverside paths. Above the town stands the vast castle complex, one of the largest in Central Europe, featuring elegant gardens, historic theatres, and the distinctive Castle Tower. Ceský Krumlov also has a rich cultural life, with museums, galleries, concerts, traditional events, and craft workshops. Walking through its streets reveals centuries of stories and a unique atmosphere that makes the town one of the Czech Republic’s most memorable destinations.
